Cast Notes

Mary Bradshaw (chorus) is a music performance major and art minor who has been in a number of plays and musicals from elementary to high school. Last fall she was Elaine in SJC's Arsenic and Old Lace. Mary would like to someday become a successful recording artist.

Megan Bodnar (chorus) is a biology major who has starred in several high school productions as well as SJC's Picnic, One Act Plays, and Into the Woods. Megan hopes to become a chiropractor.

Jeannette Catuara (Peggy) is a senior sociology and theatre/mass communication major who has been in four years of high school plays as well as four years of plays at SJC. Her favorite role was Smitty in How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying. Jeannette dreams of becoming an actress and going into counseling.

Wendy Charlesworth (chorus) is making her debut on the SJC stage. Wendy is a music major with a concentration in church music and liturgy with a minor in Latin. After graduation, she plans on getting married and working in a church or religious institution as a choir director.

Courtney Coe (chorus) is a freshman mass communication major from Wataga, IL. She has starred in several high school plays as well as Arsenic and Old Lace at SJC. Courtney would like to someday go into some aspect of television production.

Kelly Dougherty (dancer) is a sophomore history and political science major from Charlottesville, VA. She has been dancing since she was 3 and has performed as a featured dancer in shows such as Anything Goes and The Music Man. She played the french horn for SJC's musical, Into the Woods. Kelly has had a blast working on this show and hopes to continue her dancing career on stage at SJC.

Betsy Fryksdale (chorus) is making her debut on the SJC stage. Betsy has worked on the SJC as stage crew in plays earlier this year.

Maura Giles (chorus) is a freshman English-Creative writing major with a journalism minor who has starred in many musicals in high school. At SJC she starred in The Odd Couple as Cecily Pigeon. Maura is involved in the SJC band, Campus Ministry, and the Freshman Leadership Program, and The Observer as news editor.

Kimberly Grote (Robin) is a senior marketing major from Crawfordsville, IN. She has starred in several SJC performances including Into the Woods as Little Red Riding Hood.

Kristen Hall (Sonia/dancer) is a freshman at SJC who is a cheerleader, a member of the dance team, choir, and an active member in the community theater of Northwest Indiana. Her favorite shows include The Wiz, Pippin, and Little Shop of Horrors. She would like to thank her parents, her roomies, the 3rd west girls, and "Bill".

Blaire Henley (chorus) is making her debut on the SJC stage. Blaire loved doing musicals and plays in high school. She is a chemistry and history major and plans to go to law school and work for Eli Lilly.

Kathy Jarowicz (chorus) is a senior mass communication major and happy to be in her first stage role. Kathy has been involved in theatre at SJC, but her work has been behind the scenes. She recently directed and designed Arsenic and Old Lace, stage managed and built sets for many shows. Kathy is interning at the Lafayette Civic Theatre, where she light designed The Outsiders and stage managed Pump Boys and Dinettes. Kathy loves theatre and hopes to work on Broadway someday.

Amanda Kiral (dancer) is making her debut on the SJC stage. She is a freshman music major who plans to either direct a choir or be a composer. Amanda has been in numerous types of choirs her whole life, including show choir.

Theresa Kreinbrink (chorus) is making her debut on the SJC stage. She is a music business major and unsure of her future plans. Theresa had a great time working on this musical and would like to thank her family and friends.

Bree Ma'Ayteh (chorus) is making her debut on the SJC stage. She is a freshman English major and has starred in several high school performances including Anne of Green Gables as Anne Shirley and Into the Woods as Rapunzel. In the future, Bree would like to have a job she is happy with and be independent and someday go to New York.

Mick Mancuso (Stephen) is a business management major at SJC. Mick has previously starred as a prince in the musical Into the Woods at SJC. After graduation he plans to go to graduate school and start his own business.

Mandy Meyers (dancer) is a freshman communication and theatre arts major who is making her debut on the SJC stage. She has done theatre productions since age 8 and taken dance lessons for many years. Mandy was a cheerleader this basketball season for the Lady Pumas. Mandy would like to dedicate this performance to her parents.

Elizabeth Musick (chorus) is a sophomore double major in mathematics and computer science from McAllen, TX. She actively participated in musicals throughout high school. She played Cinderella's mother in SJC's Into the Woods and she looks forward to continuing her performance on the SJC stage.

Ann O'Donnell (chorus) is a freshman English major with a secondary ed and journalism minor. She starred in several plays in high school including a pirate in Peter Pan and Ann the Grape Squasher in The Mouse That Roared.

Sara Reasoner (Lamar) is a junior communication/theatre arts major who has been involved in the Columbian Players since her freshman year. She has appeared in You Can't Take It With You, Evening With the Columbian Players, How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, Picnic, Into the Woods, Arsenic and Old Lace, and Christmas With the Columbian Players. Sara is considering a career in theatre, but she is also highly interested in public relations work.

Theresa Richer (Gilmer) is a junior psychology major and member of the band, dance team, choir, vice president of the psychology club, and secretary of the Columbian Players. After graduation, she hopes to attend graduate school and get her masters in counseling. She is looking forward to continuing her acting with the Columbian Players in her senior year.

William Shannon (David) is a senior history major. He has appeared in You Can't Take It With You, How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, Picnic, Into the Woods, Arsenic and Old Lace, and The Odd Couple. William plans to attend graduate school (God willing...)

Joseph Small (chorus) is a freshman mass communication major from Lowell, IN who has appeared in Arsenic and Old Lace at SJC as well as numerous productions in high school. Joe would like to be a sports commentator and says that he enjoys the theatre very much and hopes to get more chances on the SJC stage.

Marilyn Tebbe (Joanne) is a communications and theatre arts major with an art minor. She is a member of the Columbian Players and has appeared in SJC's Into the Woods. Marilyn plans to attend graduate school to become a college professor in a theatre program.

Susan Welter (dance captain) is a communications and theatre arts major and has been studying dance at the Sandra Lee Studio of Dance in Knox for 18 years. At SJC she has been a member and captain of the dance team for 2 years. Susan has assisted in the choreography of SJC's How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying and played Snow White in Into the Woods. She plans to work in the field of public relations after graduation next year.

Stephen Giles (Jeffrey) is a philosophy major from Indianapolis who has appeared regularly on the SJC stage. He was last seen as Felix in The Odd Couple. Stephen is the president of the Columbian Players.

Jeremy Holman (Herb) is a dual biology/chemistry and English major who was last seen on the SJC stage in Arsenic and Old Lace. Jeremy is active in band and the Columbian Players.

Tara Hairston (dancer) is a sophomore in political science from Okemos, MI. This is Tara's first production at SJC.
